Membership News

President's Message

I am pleased to announce that the PLSG will be sharing a booth with the Poster Stamp Collectors Club and the Ephemera Society of America at the 2016 International show in New York, May 28-June 4. As part of this show we will have a frame to demonstrate what we collect. I have such an exhibit from our last show at Washington 2006. Details of the 2016 show may be found on their website: www.ny2016.org It's not too early to start planning ahead.

The electronic format is working quite well. I see contributions by other members which is a salutary effect. Please keep the submissions coming to help Bas. He is doing a yeoman's job.

Jan C. ter Welle's new book, Express Labels of the World, has just arrived on my desk. It is most worthy successor to Charles H. Smith's earlier compilation, adding many new finds. Like Charles's book, all illustrations are in full color. The layout is simple to understand and, most importantly for any catalogue, there is a relative value scale. It is 248 pages, perfect-bound in quarto size, easy to handle and use. All members should have one in their library.

An auction appears in this issue. Bid high and bid often... sales help our club.

Art Groten

Sadly, our member John Hollenkamp (Netherlands) passed away. He was a fine and serious collector of "international airmail". Part of this was an impressive collection of air mail labels, separate and on cover, from the beginning till 1935. His collection was auctioned at Köhler, Wiesbaden.

New member:

David Grossblat (0307)

PO Box 26387, Phoenix AZ 85068, USA

He is a dealer selling US and world wide stamps, postal history, with a comprehensive stock of Monaco and Andorra.

Interests: all, esp. US Registry Exchange labels

Would like to correspond and exchange

No e-mail provided.

New findings by Burt Robbins:

I found these "Air Mail" items on eBay. No date, but they look vintage. The labels are about 19mm x51mm wide, self-adhesive. The letter sheets are 165mm wide x 240mm long, and are heavy paper which folds up, making an envelope. The back side is blank for writing on. The top of the sheet makes the flap and is marked "seal it." The "fly It" front has "stamp it air mail" where the stamp would go. Six sheets and six labels are in a folded vinyl folder with two pockets. Not officially air mail, but interesting!

Air Mail Etiquettes for Sale

Art Groten, agroten43@icloud.com

These collections comprise post-1941 material. Each group includes numerous singles (mint and used), booklets, multiples, a few sheets and many covers, all organized by Mair numbers. Some of the common types, of which there are many, have not been worked up.

These collections are a marvelous for someone just starting out or for the serious collector looking for varieties. Many of the covers have postal history interest in their own right. There is mild to considerable duplication of some labels; most are singletons. There is strength in 3* to 5* items. Clearly, these characteristics will vary from lot to lot.

Because of the volume of material, detailed lists cannot be supplied nor can requests for single items be accepted. Personal checks in U.S.$ drawn on a US bank are referred. Payment by Paypal is OK provided their 3% charge is added to the price.

The collections (all include at least 1000 items, some considerably more):

U.S.: massive holding of many thousands, by far the largest group. $1750

G.B.: a large group with many full sheets with different marginal imprints, an ideal lot for expansion. $1000

Australasia: mostly Australia and New Zealand and a nice group the scarcer small islands. $750

Europe: another very large lot including all of Europe with strength in multiples and covers. $1250

Rest of the World: similar to the European lot, again with strength in multiples and covers. $1000

Total: $5750 or $4750 the lot. Terms available.

The image gives some idea of the magnitude of the entire holding.

In our last Bulletin I announced that the "EXPRESS LABEL CATALOGUE" was close to completion and that I was discussing the artwork with the printer. It appeared to be the right thing, as artwork is for professionals and the coverpages look much better now. It is my pleasure now to announce that the catalogue is for sale and can be ordered with me. The price is:

- Outside EURO countries: US$ 47.00 + $ 19.35 S&H costs, payable via Paypal
- EURO countries: EURO 45.00 (incl. S&H costs), payable to J.C. ter Welle, BIC: ABNANL2A, IBAN: NL82 ABNA 0544023099
- Netherlands: EURO 39.00 (incl. S&H costs)

Also, as a catalogue like this is never complete, I will put the buyers from my book on a mailing list and keep them informed on a regular base about new findings and information.

janterwelle@online.nl

Mr. Farrington sent this nice addition to the list of various ways of postal transportation. It is dated 1906.

"R.R.B." (left bottom corner) means 'Rail Road Business' (see also previous Bulletin)

C.O.D. labels

In issue 88 for the first time some COD labels were shown (COD = cash on delivery) in PLB. For the present issue Ron Bentley also sent us a nice specimen and remarks:

“French Indochina operated a “cash on delivery”(C.O.D.) service called “contre remboursement.” The cover shown here has a triangular label (supposedly removed from a corner of the tracking document) that was intended to remind the postman to collect the amount due. In this case, a manuscript “CR 1.10” at the upper right meant that the postman was supposed to collect 1.10 piasters.”

I think it is worthwhile to repeat the images of issue 88:

It was said then that COD labels are most often triangular (and orange coloured) but with exceptions as this beautiful piece makes clear.

The examples with triangular form shown are:

Israel

Belgium

Like the duty labels in the previous issue these COD labels are fascinating and as far as I know still uncharted territory. What are we waiting for?

Airmail labels

In addition to AMLs shown in the previous PLB issue John Bloor sent two etiquettes with the same design. He comments:

“On the last page of the Summer 2014 PLSG Bulletin, six airmail etiquettes were shown submitted by Darus Greathouse. Six similar labels were shown in the Winter 2009 (#76) issue of the PLSG Bulletin on page 12. I’ve attached scans of two more of these labels in my collection although I can’t provide any new information about them. They both appear different with respect to address and flight information from any of the other 12 already shown. The one to Bagdad [sic] may have been trimmed but the etiquette design still appears different than that on any of the other 12. In the 2009 Bulletin they are described as “Private Preprinted First Flight Address Labels” which seems plausible to me. I haven’t seen one on cover.”

I think it is worthwhile to show them all together, perhaps there could be more.

The ones Darus sent were all on cover, like for instance:

Miscellaneous

From Ray Woodward-Clarke:

Royal Mail have redesigned all their labels for their various postal services in the last couple of years or so. Instead of loose certificates post offices are now supplied in rolls of 250 labels. Their Customs labels come in a similar format.

If any of the members are interested I can supply copies of all 7 labels in strips of three at a token cost of GBP5.00 including postage & packing (payable by Paypal). I can be contacted at ray.wc3@gmail.com

Auction

If you wish to view a lot or lots, request via e-mail, the lot numbers to me. I will return your e-mail with attachments of these lots (up to 10 lots per e-mail, if my server will permit that size). Booklets will not be opened for scans, backs of lots will not be scanned. Scans may not show accurate size and color. If you like this service, please let me know. My e-mail address is in the masthead of the Bulletin.

Feel free to ask questions!

Note: Unfortunately, I may be unable to respond for a while, to e-mails bids or requests for scans. Any bids on line should be held up for 2-3 weeks after the Bulletin.
